

Flathead Reservation Presents Another Opportunity

By WILLIAM Q. RANFT

A Series of Descriptive and Illustrative Articles Devoted to the Immense Empire Soon to be Opened to Settlement, Designed to Educate in a Sane and Truthful Manner.

You ask me to write a series of articles regarding the great Flathead reservation, insofar as it presents actual opportunity to the dead-in-earnest homeseeker. Treated from any other standpoint such a series of articles would fall far short of correctly setting forth the full virtues of this great empire.

Though I am not disposed to force upon the conviction of the reader against his will that no such opportunity has ever been offered nor ever will be offered again to the homeseeker who is actually looking for a place to secure a home upon which he may become independent and even wealthy, I do
